

TWENTY HUN SUBMARINES TO ALLIES

FIRST OF GERMANY'S U-BOATS TURNED OVER TO ADMIRAL
TYRWITT BY GERMANS
THIS MORNING.

MORE ON THURSDAY

Twenty-nine More Under Water Craft
Will Be Surrendered on Thursday by Boches.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 20.—Twenty German submarines were surrendered to Rear Admiral Reginald W. Tyrwhitt, thirty miles off Harwich, this morning at sunrise, according to a Press Association dispatch. These are the first U-boats to be turned over to the allies
by Germany.

Receive Surrender.
Admiral Tyrwhitt received the surrender of the German craft on board his flagship, a British cruiser. The surrendered submarines will proceed to Harwich in charge of their own crews. The U-boats will then be boarded by British crews and interrogated and proceed to Portkennet quay, near by. The Germans will leave the submarines there and board transports for their return to Germany. Twenty-nine additional submarines will be surrendered on Friday. The remainder of the U-boats to be handed over in accordance with the armistice terms will be given up later.

Austrian Ship.
Rome, Nov. 20.—An Italian cruiser has entered the harbor of Sebenico.
The Austrian Transatlantic liner Prinz Josef, which was in port, has been taken over and renamed the Arenand Diaz. Admiral Milto, governor of the Dalmatian region, occupied by Italy, hoisted the Italian flag over the vessel, according to news paper dispatches. Order has been restored at Sebenico. It is said, Sebenico is in Dalmatia near the mouth of the river Krka flows into the Adriatic sea. It is 70 miles southeast of Trieste.

Articles Published.
London.—Captain Persius, the German naval attaché, has been the subject of the finest vessels of the German navy are about to be surrendered to the allies, to publish in the Berlin Tageblatt, a sensational article containing revelations of the German fleet. Captain Persius says he hopes that the German fleet would be able in a second Skagerrak battle to beat the British fleet rested upon the bluffs and lies of the naval authorities.

Aug. 1914, Germany had about one million tonnage in war ships, the water points out, while Great Britain had more than three times that and,
according to the mistakes of Von Terpit
the German material was quite inferior to the British.

Saved From Destruction.
In the Skagerrak battle he declares
the German fleet was saved from destruction partly by good leadership and partly by favorable weather conditions. Had the weather been clear less than half the German fleet would have been destroyed.

The long range British guns would have completely smashed the lighter armed German ships.

NAVAL PROGRAM IS TO BE CONTINUED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 20.—Continued
naval expansion by the United States without regard to present for possible decisions at the peace conference the formation of a league of nations or reduction of armaments was recommended to congress today by Secretary Daniels at a private conference with the House Naval committee which is framing the 1920 naval appropriation bill. Discussions with the committee directly concerned the league of nations and disarmament called for in President Wilson's peace principles. Mr. Daniels insisted that the committee should proceed as these questions are for future settlements and no one can foresee the decisions.

TELEGRAPH COMPANIES WILL BE CONSOLIDATED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 20.—Consolidation of the Western Union and Post-Office telegraph companies under government control was announced today by Postmaster General Burleson.
Effective December 1st next.
Postmaster General Burleson announced today that failing to reach an agreement with postal telegraph companies upon compensation to be paid for use of their lines during the period of government control he had made an award which would be increased through the department when a final suit to the court to determine final adjustment.

Americans Push on to German Territory With Army and Food

American Army of Occupation.—
Nov. 20.—The American troops shov-ered their line across the German frontier today. The frontier was crossed at points opposite Brieg and Audun-Le Roman and at points between these two places further north the duchy of Luxembourg was entered in the direction of the city of Luxembourg.
Food supplies, clothing and ammunition were being moved eastward with the infantry and the American force is prepared for any eventuality the advance into Germany is regarded by other officers and men however as nothing more than an ordinary march.
The latest reports on the movement of the Germans indicates they are retiring in full compliance with the terms of the armistice, that it is reported that in some towns on the line of thousands of rifles thrown down by German soldiers who demand they would not fight anymore regardless of the provocation.

GERMANY LOST OVER MILLION MEN KILLED

Copenhagen, Nov. 20.—Up to Oct.
31, 1,530,000 German soldiers were killed and the loss of 260,000 was not known, the Vorwaerts of Berlin says
it learns of reliable authority.
Four million soldiers have been wounded from several towns the newspaper adds that were 490,000 German prisoners in hostile countries.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR TRANSFER OF PRISONERS

Berne, Switzerland, Nov. 20.—Arrangements have been made for the transportation of 100,000 Italian prisoners from Austria and Germany to Italy by way of Switzerland.

FIXING OF FOOD PRICES NECESSARY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Nov. 20.—Fixing of prices is necessary during the coming months according to state food administrator Magnus Swanson who addressed the county food administrators at a conference here today. He suggested that retail stores throughout Wisconsin can be asked to erect blackboards upon which wholesale and retail prices be published. He said that while there is no more wheat in this country than substitutes it is necessary to feed many people close to starvation in Europe. He said that forty million people must be fed in Russia, ten million more in northern France and Belgium and that condition are so bad in Serbia that few children born since 1914 have lived. He declared that twenty million tons of food will be sent to Europe this year as compared with six million tons in times of peace.

That county food administrators will continue to fix prices of food was urged by A. H. Melville in an address before the county food administration this afternoon. The conference was addressed by Mrs. Ford Robinson Hale of Mr. Hoover's staff. She will talk on conditions in Europe.

Workers Will Strike to Secure Release of Thomas M. Mooney

Seattle, Washington, Nov. 20.—
After a protracted session lasting until early this morning, the Seattle Metal Trades Council representing approximately 35,000 workers voted to strike to bring about the release of Thomas M. Mooney and his correspondent convicted in the San Francisco preparedness day bombing case.
An attempt will be made to make the demonstration an international affair, union men said. The date of the proposed strike is left open.

Returns to Brussels After Being Prisoner for Fifty Months

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Brussels, Belgium, Nov. 18.—After fifty months of captivity in Germany, Bourgmestre Max of Brussels, came into his own again today. The municipal council received him at the city hall which was covered with flags.
The Dutch Minister, many prominent citizens and officers of the allied armies were present.

VAN HISE FUNERAL WILL BE THURSDAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Nov. 20.—The funeral of President Chas. R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin will be held in the main lobby of the State Historical library Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Bishop Samuel Fellows, Chicago, University graduate and close friend of the family of the deceased
has been asked to officiate.

ANXIETY IN GERMANY

Situation in East Causing Great Deal of Anxiety in Germany. Great German Army Marching Eastward

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Copenhagen, Nov. 20.—The Ukrainian government has been overthrown and Kieze has been captured by troops from Astrakhan, according to Kieze dispatches to Swedish newspapers.
The Ukrainian National Assembly has fled and a provisional government has been established by the captors of the city who apparently are communized by Gen. Denikine, leader of the anti-Bolshevik forces.

Became Republic.
The Ukrainian became a republic
during the disorders in Russia, after the overthrow of the Kerensky government in November 1917. There was much fighting in there between the Bolsheviks and their opponents resulting in the defeat of the Bolsheviks.

Peace With Germany.
The Ukrainian government made peace with Germany at Brest-Litovsk
a few days before the Russian Bolshevik government also agreed to the German terms. Austro-German troops then entered the Ukrainian for the purpose of carrying out economic articles of the peace treaty.

Cause Anxiety.
The situation in the east is causing anxiety in Berlin, Germans think that a great German army is marching eastward according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Forces Active.
Archangel, Thurs.—Bolshevik forces
along the Dvina, their infantry attack having been repulsed, today were bombarding the Russo-allied positions on the left bank of the river of Tulgas. The allied artillery replied vigorously.

Continue Negotiations.
Basel, Switzerland.—Matthias Erzberger, secretary of state, without portfolio, in the German cabinet and head of the delegates, who were sent to Marshal Foch's headquarters, has agreed to the request of the government to continue the negotiations relating to the armistice to prepare for those of peace according to the Post of Strasbourg. He thus, strictly speaking, is secretary of state for peace, it is said.

Copenhagen, Nov. 20.—Delegates from Vienna have arrived at Berlin to negotiate a union of German-Austria with Germany.
As a result of negotiations between Denmark and Germany, the latter will receive each month 75,000 tons of fat, 150,000 tons of meat, and 230, 000 tons of oat, according to the Danish correspondent of the Berlingske Tidende.

Reports of Fight.
Washington.—Reports of the overturning of the Ukrainian government by General Benikine's anti-Bolshevik forces, was received today with satisfaction for officials said it will make the work of the allies in handling the Russian problem, much more simple.

EXPLOSION CAUSES BIG FIRE IN BRUSSELS

buildings are in ruin. The region near the station has been evacuated
in an area of more than a mile.

MADISON'S WETS AND DRYS GET ANOTHER RECOUNT OF VOTES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Nov. 20.—Madison's wet and dry vote in the election of the state superintendent of schools was recounted this time in the circuit court.
The slim margin by which the drys carried the election, a plurality of two,
has caused the wets to believe the count may yet alter the result sufficiently to permit the opening of the saloons.

CONDITIONS DEPLORABLE ON MADEIRA ISLANDS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 20.—According to advices from Portugal, conditions on the islands of Madeira are deplorable.
Owing to the war curtailment of steamship traffic, communication was reduced to only one steamer monthly, causing an industrial paralysis.
Thousands of casks of wine and great quantities of wicker work and hand made embroideries have accumulated at Funchal, the port of the islands. With the stoppage of industries, the inhabitants are unable to earn enough money to keep themselves properly fed.
Present supplies are entirely inadequate because of lack of ships.

MYSTERY CAR BEING HELD BY LOCAL POLICE

Oldsmobile Which Struck Contractor's
Wagon on South Main Street
Still Unclaimed.

Chief Champion is still searching for the owner of the automobile bearing license number 259,755 (Illinois). The car was abandoned on South Main street Monday evening after it had collided with a wagon.

It is thought that the auto party, seeing Mr. Todd on the ground unconscious, became frightened, and thinking that he was dead, they escaped.

Chief Champion communicated with the Rockford police and an affideavit word has been received as yet. The chief received a telephone call yesterday afternoon from a man in Rockford who stated he owned the car and that it was his chauffeur who had it out, and that all efforts to locate the driver had proven futile. He stated he would come to Janesville at once and the matter was left up to a late hour today he had not put in an appearance.

Mr. Todd is reported to be much better today and is able to be out, but it will be several weeks before he will be able to resume work.
Meanwhile the mystery car which is a seven-passenger Oldsmobile, is being held at the city hall.

GENERAL INCREASE IN EXPRESS RATES ANNOUNCED TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 20.—General increases in express rates were announced today by Director General MacAdoo of the railroad administration. East of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers
the new rates in merchandise will be out 15c and 17c per 100 lbs. more than at present. Increase on food rates will be about seventy-five per cent as much.
For the remainder of the country
the merchandise rates will be increased about ten to twelve hundred lbs. over the present scale and the increase in the food rates will be proportionately seventy-five per cent. The increase in rates was announced as due to increase in wages and become effective immediately.

American Girls in Germany Cheered by the Prussian Troops

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.]
Berne, via Paris, Nov. 20.—Leticia Curless, of San Francisco, and Chloe Deaver, attached to the Swiss commission of the Red Cross, were the first American women to enter Germany since the beginning of the war.

They crossed the Rhine into Baden at Loerrach on Sunday, some days before the army of occupation was due.
The girls drove motor trucks filled with supplies for the feeding of the hundreds of Italian, Russian, French and British and the few American prisoners.

Prussian officers acted courteously toward the Americans, holding up retreating artillery convoys on congested roads and bridges to permit the motor trucks to pass. Retiring German soldiers, with red flag thrust in to the barrels of their rifles, cheered the girls who had placed an American flag on their motor truck.

The soldiers cheered vociferously
when they learned that the Kaiser had fled and hurrahed for "the three republics—America, France and Germany."

When the motor trucks stopped the German soldiers gathered around it offering belt buckles, shrapnel, helmets and bayonets as souvenirs.

Released prisoners encountered by the two American women were greatly in need of food and clothing. Small bunches of them were overtaken patiently plodding in the direction of France.

losses amounted to 34,000 tons.

CENSORSHIP LIMITED TO ALL MILITARY NEWS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Rome, Nov. 20.—By a royal decree,
the Press censorship has been limited to military news, false reports likely to alarm the public, reports of trouble in international relations and any matter which in itself is based on alarm.
Another decree appoints a committee to inquire into the laws of war and the conditions relative to the treatment of prisoners of war by the enemy. It will also draw up a statement to injuries caused to persons and property and establish the responsibility therefore.

ENEMY ACTIVITIES HAVE NOT CEASED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 19.—Sir George Cave
in speaking in the House of Lords tonight said that although there was a pause in hostilities, the enemy activities have not ceased.

"Germany has already begun to try to stray under the unity of the allies and of unity at home," he said.
"Believe there is a close relationship between Bolshevism and Germany. I have had evidence of this during the last week. We ought not to be lulled by the pause in hostilities, but the defense of the realm act for dealing with Bolshevism," he said.

"A bill containing the alien act of 1914 should be introduced in the next session, enabling the government to impose restriction upon the landing of enemy aliens."

Lord Reading's Views.
Germany in the end may not because she had changed her views, but because she knew she would be absolutely beaten, declared the Earl of Reading, who has been mentioned by the British peace delegates, in a speech in London today.

Lord Reading warned that the allied countries should continue to show that of Germany and the utterances of her statements.

"The Germans which now are anxious to fall in with the views of our country," he said, "this yet to show
by her actions and not merely by one day or two or a year or two years, that the whole spirit of Germany has changed as we wish it to change, because we can only believe in all heart that Germany has changed from what she was before the war."

SENSATIONS FOLLOW MANY VAGUE RUMORS

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.]
London, Nov. 20.—A great sensation has been created in Germany
by reports that the allies demand that Hindenburg surrender the ex-kaiser of Germany, said a Geneva dispatch to the Daily Express today.
The Neue Presse of Vienna, asserts that Charles did not formally abdicate as Emperor of Austria, but is remaining at Vienna where he is said to be popular with the masses.

It had previously been reported several times that Charles had taken refuge with his family in Switzerland.

Holds Court.
Zurich, Nov. 20.—Prince Bittel, son of the former Kaiser has arrived at Potsdam, to discuss the future Hohenzollern dynasty, said a dispatch from Berlin today.

The ex-kaiser has postponed her departure from Berlin to Holland, at the request of her husband.

W. S. S. SALE IN CITY MOST SATISFACTORY

Interesting data has just been compiled relative to the war savings campaign for the sale of W. S. S. and Thrift stamps.
Wisconsin's quota of the two billion dollars to be raised from the sale of these stamps is $50,721,320. The state's quota of this sum is $1, 740,000. To the first of November
there has been sold in the state $25-$38,331, or a little over 50% of the state's quota. Rock county has sold to Nov. 1st the sum of $567,333, or $3.65 for the per capita of the county.

The postoffice at Janesville up to Nov. 1st has sold $253,465 worth, or figuring the population of the city at 20,000 the per capita is $12.60. The average sales in all the counties of the state amount to $10.68 per capita. While Rock county's sale is slightly below
the average the per capita sale for Janesville is several points above the average.

The state director for Wisconsin of the National War Savings Committee has decided to put on a new drive, commencing on Thanksgiving day
and to continue to the end of 1919, making week to clean up the pledges made during the June drive, to get these pledges redeemed and as many new ones as can be made so that Wisconsin may go over the top.

Patrons of the Janesville office are urgently requested to redeem their pledges entirely at the earliest possible date.

NEW SELLING LINES FOR GOVERNMENT BONDS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 20.—Government war bond selling in the future will be along distinctly new lines. Bonds will have short maturities and Secretary McAdoo explained today that this is meant from 3 to 5 years. In addition, issues will be smaller than in the past and probably will be marketed more continuously.

MARSHAL PETAIN REVIEWS
FRENCH TROOPS AS THEY ENTER HISTORIC GER-MAN CITY

STATUES TAKEN AWAY

All Statues of German Rulers Were Removed Night Before Allied Troops Entered City.

Metz, Nov. 20.—When Marshal Petain entered this city yesterday he stood before the statue of Marshal Ney and reviewed the troops of the municipality and local societies welcomed the Marshal at the city hall and the Vieker General greeted him at the Cathedral where "to demons" were said.
Historic Event.
The historic event accomplished at 3 p. m. this afternoon when Marshal Petain, commander of French made his entry into Metz, the great stronghold of Lorraine and the pivot of Germany's efforts to crush France, little more than any other happening to consecrate the victory of the allies in this war.

Big Demonstration.
The occasion in which the French commander in chief for the first time as Marshal of France, also gave rise to one of the most picturesque demonstrations ever carried out by the people of Lorraine.

From early in the morning all the roads leading to Metz were crowded with Lorrainers on their way to the city to raise their voices there for Marshal Petain and France.

People unaccustomed to any tanguer other than the German for years, began many days ago rushing into knowledge of French in preparation for this occasion and although the majority of the population undoubtedly has a perfect acquaintance with no other tongue than the Lorraine, the
of that language was heard in the streets today.

Remove Statues.
Other things German and disappeared over night, including the statues of the German rulers which have been hauled over by the citizens, William the first, had toppled over from the horse on his equine.
While Frederick who for many years has pointed a menacing finger at France, from the pedestal upon which he stood, had come down with a rope around his neck by the German army.
It was still left to figure grotes-quely as a statue on the facade of the Cathedral, the hands had been chained during the night, and into them had been put a leading with this

PLAN TO ENTER THREE BODIES AT SAME TIME

It is expected that the remains of the late W. J. McIntyre, former county clerk, who died in Phoenix, Ariz., some three weeks ago, and that of his wife, who followed him to the world beyond a few days later, also the remains of a grand-daughter, Ruth Dean, who passed away some two years ago, will leave Phoenix today for the long journey to Janesville and their final resting place at Oak Hill cemetery, where Mr. McIntyre has a lot. The notice of the funeral services will be given later and will be decided upon the arrival of the bodies.

W. R. C. MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. Section No. 14, C. was held yesterday afternoon.
Mrs. Mary Dille of Milwaukee, Past Dept. Pres., was here for the annual inspection of the corps. After inspection and the business session, a short program was given.
November 19th, being the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, Comrade Burham gave an interesting talk on Lincoln, as a man and his famous speech.
Comrade Viney then recited Lincoln's famous speech.
Songs by Miss Clara Shawman; recitation by Mrs. Sallor; and Speech by Comrade Carlo.
Supper was served at six o'clock to about 75 comrades and corps members.
The diet during and after influenza, Horlick's Malted Milk, nourishing, digestible.

MAY ERECT LIBERTY BUILDING AS MEMORIAL TO JANESVILLE BOYS

Plans for the erection of a Liberty building in Janesville, to be a memorial for the brave boys of this city who answered the call to arms, were discussed by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last evening.
A survey will be made of different cities which are contemplating the erection of such buildings. It has been approved by the government and it is the opinion of all that such a building would be the proper thing to dedicate to the boys.
No steps were taken at the meeting for the erection of the building, but a survey will be started immediately, and it is hoped that active work on a new building will be started before very long.

BAZAAR PROMISES TO BE UNIQUE AFFAIR

Elaborate plans are being made for the Bazaar which is to open on Friday to raise money for the Pathless Children of France. The ladies in charge of the bazaar are busy arranging the booths and putting up the flags and other decorations which will help to transform the McNamara store into an attractive and beautiful place.
Very desirable home baking products will be displayed on a table in the rear of the store.
Pammy work in the booth presided over by Mrs. A. J. Harris and been presented for sale by Mrs. Frank Van Kirk and Miss Ada Lewis.
Miss Grace Mount and Mrs. J. P. Callen are preparing a complete and sale of fruit products, vegetables, canned fruits and so forth.
Mrs. L. S. Lovejoy and Mrs. Pieter Wood will have a collection of works of art of all descriptions, paintings, and things of that nature, while Mrs. Stanley Dunwiddie's booth will have a special attraction for the young folks, with its display of candy and pop corn.
Mrs. J. R. Nichols will have the assistance of the Sammies Sisters and will sell flowers.
A dainty little tea room is being fitted up in the rear of the large store, where tea, coffee, and other light refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Wilcox and Mrs. N. L. Corle. Mrs. Baxter is in general charge of the whole arrangements.
There will be music of all kinds, both afternoon and evening, both vocal and instrumental. Miss Martha Powers and Mrs. Alice Thomas will sing several numbers and it is expected that the band will play one evening as well as furnish orchestral music. There has been a promise that some of the vaudeville artists from the Apollo, would give some numbers during the afternoons.
Altogether it looks as though there would not be a dull moment during the two days of the bazaar. The response to the appeal for contributions and help for this project has been simply wonderful, every one being willing and glad to do their utmost for the cause. Contributions from every one in the county is asked for, and the room will be open all day Thursday, for receiving goods.
This splendid movement has headquarters in Paris, and is headed by Marshal Joffre, and it is hoped this how to secure enough funds from this drive which is being staged all over the country, to take care adequately, of all the little children of France who have lost their fathers in this war. In this movement, the hands of the American women are stretched out across the sea, toward those other women who have given their all to the cause of freedom. And it is this personal element of tenderness and compassion which touches most deeply the brave and courageous people of France.
Later advice says that quite a special feature is to be made of the Tea Room, which will be in charge of a large corps of sales ladies, Mrs. Frank Jackman, Mrs. Alice Sale, Mrs. E. J. Hemmings, Mrs. Arthur Granger, and Mrs. Ray Bostwick being added to the list of attendants.
Mrs. Herbert Ford is also assisting Mrs. Dunwiddie at the can table. A large number of young ladies will serve as clerks and cashiers of the affair.

E. A. ROESLING RESIGNS FROM CHAMBER BOARD

Mr. E. A. Roesling presented his resignation as a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce to that body at their meeting last evening. The resignation was accepted at the earnest request of Mr. Roesling.
Due to the fact that the housing question is going to require a good deal of time from the members of the Board of Directors and increased business were the reasons given by Mr. Roesling for wishing to resign from the Board.

TUESDAY'S MARKETS

Chicago, Nov. 20.—About 200,000 hogs reported at primary markets yesterday, of which 75,000 were scheduled to reach Chicago. It was a case of glut everywhere from Nashville and Buffalo to St. Paul. Packers lived up to their agreement to maintain the $17.50 minimum, buying more hogs than they could kill, but the country has lost its head and the country wreckage of the price stabilization plan. Estimates on the holdover ran as high as 40,000, weighing being suspended at noon until the owner had pen room. Packers had thousands of unsold hogs "down on the bricks" and every market in the country reported acute congestion.
Drive cost was a shade over the 17 1/2c minimum, but packers were forced to buy good hogs late to fetch cost up to the standard. Late in the day long caravans of hogs were still on the rails, and there is danger of inability to house the run.
Cattle supply was little less burdensome. A run of 30,000 on top of 25,000 Monday caused alarm, as it will be impossible to handle the stuff later in the week unless loading in the country is restrained. Nothing notable happened, the best corn-fed calf at a late hour selling at $19, but the top of a drove of Alberta stuff made $18.25. Prices were steady to 25c lower, a clearance being doubtful.
Feeders: Stock Cattle.
Cattle feeders were after heavy cattle for a quick finish on corn, but balked at prices. Since the government lowered weight on army carcases packers are taking 900-lb. carcasses for military purposes, which shuts the country buyer out. Anything wearing a little flesh went to the shambles.
Minor hog markets, which have been ignoring the food administration minimum were notified by Everett C. Brown to get in line. To relieve the light hog situation it is probable that 150 pounds will be substituted for 130 pounds as the minimum weight at the $16.50 absolute minimum. This may keep a lot of 130@140-lb. stuff back in the country, where it is needed to make weight. Territory south of the Ohio river has lost its chief offender in cashing light stuff which Washington is anxious shall be kept until a reasonable stage of maturity has been attained.

Live mutton trade wore an improved appearance. Denver had a heavier stuff than Chicago, but it was feeder stuff en route to Colorado feed lots. Kansas City and Omaha quoted $18 on lambs, but packers balked at that price here. Denver sent word that Colorado winter feeding would be thirty per cent below last year.
Choice cattle were steady, others selling 25c lower, with no certainty as to how the market would close.
Choice to prime fat steers $19.00@19.70
Good to choice steers 17.25@19.00
Good to medium steers 15.50@17.25
Fair to medium steers 13.75@15.50
Light killing steers 10.00@13.00
Good to choice cows 10.50@13.50
Fair to good cows 8.50@10.50
Light dressed beef cows 5.25@8.25
Canning and cutt's cows 2.75@10.00
Bologna and fat bulls 10.00@12.00
Good to choice feeders 7.00@8.00
Common to fair stockers 17.00@17.75
Good to choice calves 17.00@17.75
Hogs 10@15c lower.

A run of 75,000 hogs was posted to which 20,000 holdovers were added. The market was 10@15c lower, with a $17.85 top, most of the mixed stuff selling at $17@17.50.
Heavy butchers 17.75@17.85
Medium and light butchers 17.45@17.75
Light bacon hogs 17.40@17.55
Good to choice hogs 16.75@17.00
Heavy packing mixed 17.15@17.55
Good to choice mixed 16.25@16.50
Rough 15.25@15.50
Fair to good pigs 11.00@12.00
Sheep at Good Prices.
A run of 27,000 getting good action at the best prices of the week. Pfalzer would have paid $16 for prime lambs, but $15.85 was the best price, $15@15.75 taking the bulk.
Choice to prime lambs $15.50@16.00

Good to choice lambs 15.00@15.50
Medium to good lambs 14.50@15.00
Common to cull lambs 14.00@14.50
Good to choice yearlings 11.50@12.25
Good to choice wethers 9.75@11.00
Good to choice ewes 9.75@11.00
Feeding lambs 12.00@14.50
Feeding sheep 5.00@8.00

... and with Navy Officers, it's a little over 80%

A fact:

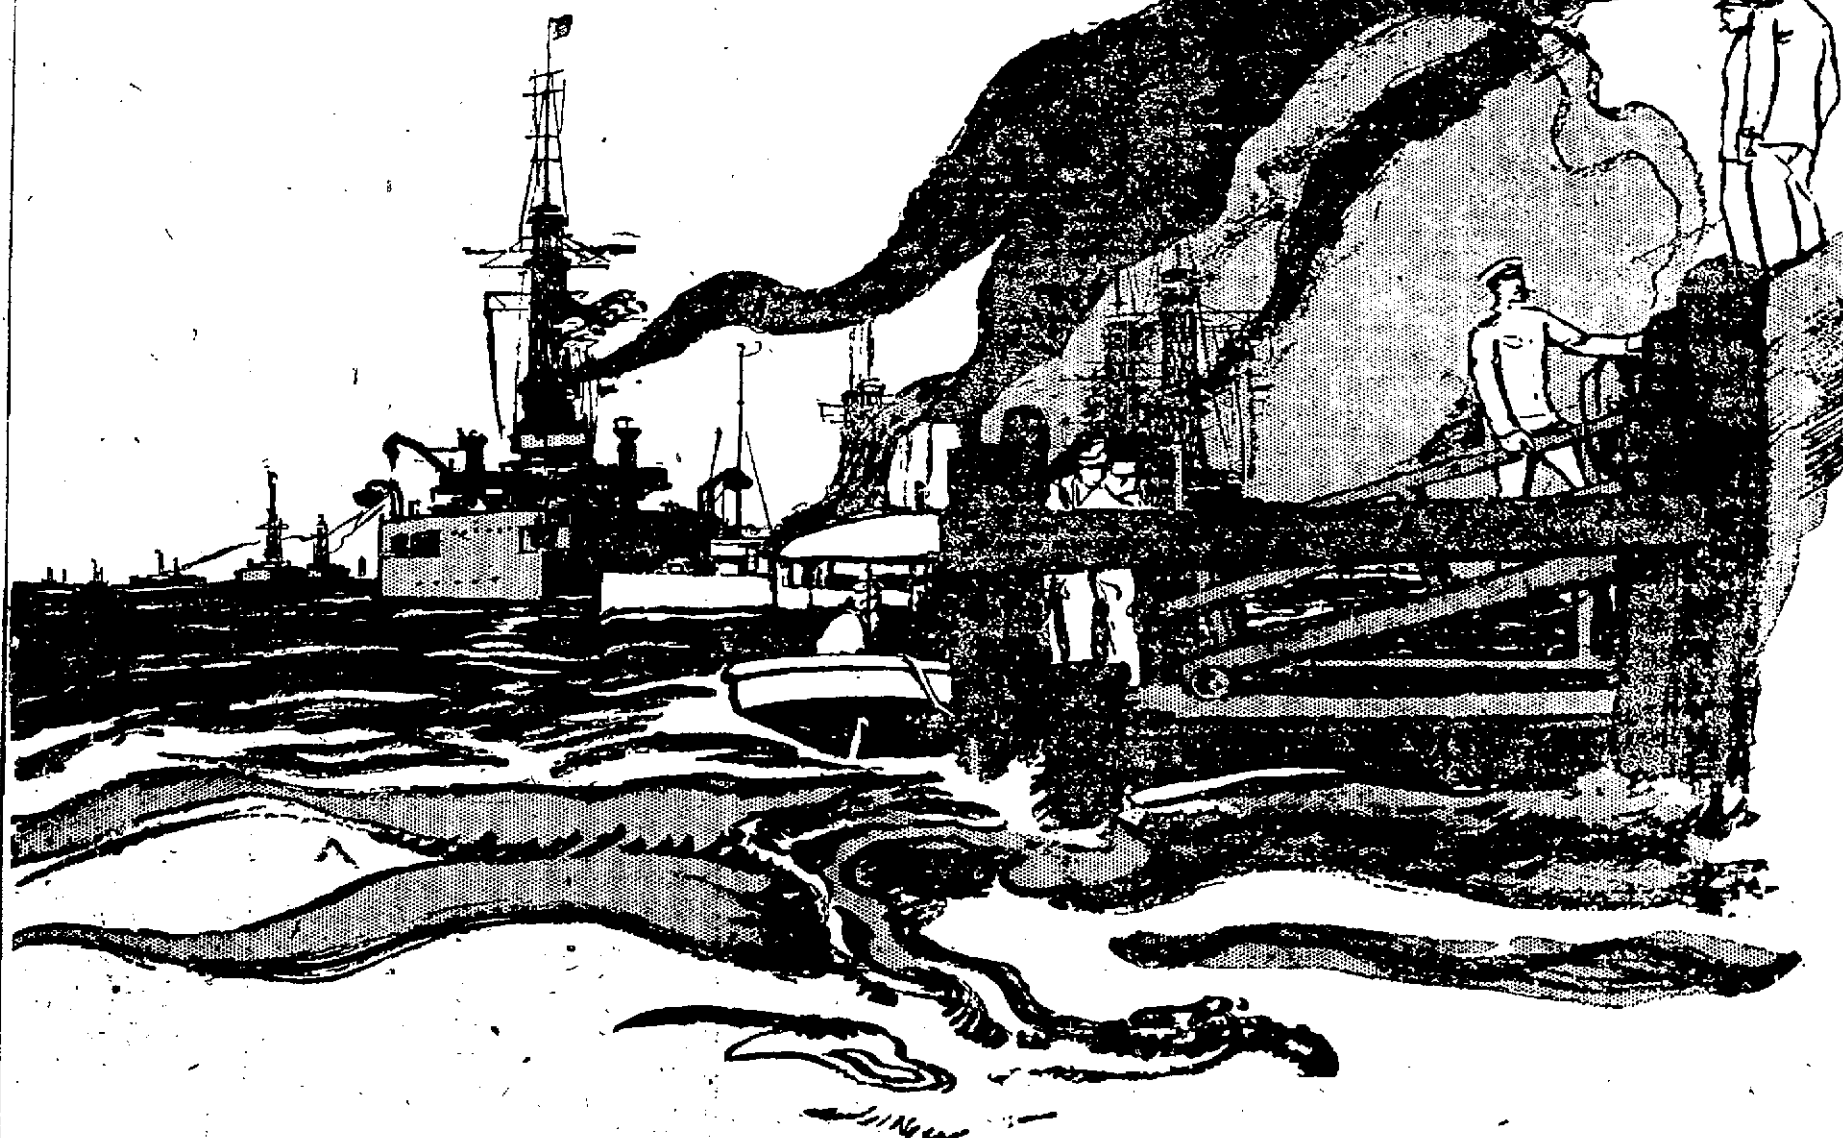

Sales reports show that throughout the U. S. Navy—on battleships, cruisers, destroyers and all other types of naval vessels—over 80% of all the cigarettes sold in Officers' Mess are Fatimas. Among the men too, of course, Fatimas are a big favorite.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

This preference for Fatima in the Navy is due not alone to the pleasing taste, but also to the fact that Fatimas never "talk back," even if a man should smoke more than usual.

Public Mass Meeting.

The time, Tuesday, Nov. 26th, at eight o'clock.

The place, Assembly room high school.

The occasion, A bigger, better Edgerton.

A public mass meeting will be held on the evening of Tuesday, November 26th, at eight o'clock in the assembly room of the high school. No citizen of Edgerton who has the interest of the city at heart will fail to be in attendance at that meeting. The committee which resulted from the public meeting of last spring will make its report.

The report will be suggestive of organizing for a larger and better Edgerton. The report will be a complete one and will necessitate immediate action and will require the co-operation of every live public spirited individual who presumes to be a booster. You are not only wanted, you are needed.

WILL STAMP OUT PRO HUN ORGANIZATIONS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, Nov. 20.—To stamp out propaganda of pro-German organizations in America which have strongly urged greatest leniency in dealing with Germany, patriotic societies of the central west have called attention to the long string of Prussian atrocities that stretch over the four years of war.

The excesses, referred to in Germany by some statesmen as "bovish pranks of the soldiers," included the bombing of hospitals, sinking of hospital ships, poisoning wells, bombing of churches and burning of cathedrals and needlessly murdering women and children in captured territory.

A list of violations of international law intended to show the treacherous policies of high German officials justified the excesses committed by soldiers in the field opens with the battle on the Belgian frontier on August 5, 1914.

Here, in chronological order, are a few of the scores of German crimes against humanity as listed by patriotic organizations.

Sept. 1, 1911—Germans bombard Paris, killing many women and children.

Feb. 21, 1915—American steamer Evelyn sunk.

May 7—Liner Lusitania torpedoed and sunk by German submarine with loss of more than 1,000 lives.

Sept. 1—Ambassador Bernstorff announced Germans would sink no more liners without warning.

Sept. 9—Germans make air raid on London, killing 20 persons and wounding 160 others, many of them women and children.

Oct. 12—Edith Cavell executed by Germans.

Nov. 9—Italian liner Ancona torpedoed without warning.

Feb. 24, 1916—Steamer Sussex torpedoed and sunk.

Oct. 8—German submarines sink six merchant steamships off Nantucket, Mass.

Nov. 8—Submarine sinks British steamer Arabia.

Nov. 7—Cardinal Mercier protests against German deportation of Belgians; submarine sinks American steamer Columbian.

Nov. 21—British hospital ship Britannic sunk in Aegean sea.

Jan. 31—Germany announces unrestricted submarine warfare.

Feb. 23—Secretary Lansing exposes Zimmerman attempt to effect a Mexican-Japanese-German alliance against America.

March 23, 1915—German long range gun shells Paris.

March 28—Long range gun kills 75 church-goers in Paris on Good Friday.

The list further shows that up to the last hour of fighting the German soldiers continued committing excesses against prisoners and inhabitants of occupied territory.

PROPOSE PLANS TO HELP RETURNING MEN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Redemption of America's waste land by the establishment of farm colonies for returned soldiers, a plan proposed by Frederic C. Howe, United States commissioner of immigration, for solving post-war problems, is being strongly endorsed here by authorities on agriculture and economics.

The proposed colonies would be developed along the lines followed in California where 6,000 acres were bought by the government last spring and let out to farmers in small holdings. The colony has been successful, fully operated on a co-operative basis.

Commissioner Howe believes that more colonies should be established throughout the country by the government, each one near a city where the produce of the farms could be sold to advantage.

"The sites should be selected by experts, as was done in establishing shipbuilding sites. Model villages with a common dairy, common farm instruments, common forests, playgrounds and pasture lands, are provided in the general plan.

"The farm must be made worth while if we are to stop the influx of people to the city from the country," said Mr. Howe. "The farm must be made profitable to the soldiers returning from Europe. We cannot give them a piece of land to clear of unproductive brush or a swamp to drain, and then tell them they can cultivate it. They deserve more than that. The only effect of such procedure would be to make the lands more valuable for the owners who had probably bought the lands years before for a few cents."

"The 'Back to the Land' theory is very pretty," Mr. Howe continued. "But the real difficulty is that we all ways like the other fellow to go back. The farmer is the Cinderella of politics, today, for he gets no help, and we resent it because he complains."

Advance the Result of Experience.

The world's advance is due only to the hopes, the plans, the progress and the work of living men and women who have tasted of the waters of life for themselves and know what it is to live and are determined that the rest of the world shall have life more abundantly.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

MEAT FROM THE WOODS

The housewife's program of conservation may be made more interesting from the trophies brought in by the man of the house after the hunting season has opened. A brace of wild ducks, a bunch of venison or a roast of bear, a rabbit pie or a roast turkey are all delicious possibilities. Let the United States Food Administration offer you some suggestions as to best methods of receipts.

Bear Meat

Bear meat is best roasted. It may be treated the same as pork, cooking 20 minutes to every pound.

Opossum

Skin, singe and wipe the opossum inside and out; hang it for several days, provided the weather is clear and the place preferably cool. Fill with potato or black walnut stuffing, sew up the slit, place it in a roasting pan, add one chopped onion, a pint of boiling water, one teaspoon of salt and one-fourth teaspoon of pepper. Roast one hour, occasionally, for three hours. Have the oven very hot at first, lessening the heat during the last of the cooking.

Stuffed Opossum

Serve with the stuffed opossum, stewed cabbage, kale or spinach, and either pan-baked apples or apple sauce, and cornbread.

Belgian Hare with Sour Cream Sauce

Clean and split a hare. Lard back and hind legs, or lay on thin slices of salt pork and season with salt and pepper. Cook eight slices of carrot cut in small pieces, one or half small five minutes. Add one cup Brown Stock and pour around hare in pan. Bake 45 minutes, basting. Add one cup cream, just turned sour and the juice of one lemon. Cook 15 minutes longer, and baste every five minutes. Remove to serving dish, strain sauce, thicken with salt and pepper, and pour around hare.

Saddle of Venison

Clean and lard a saddle of venison. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, place on rack in dripping pan and dredge with flour. Bake in a hot oven about one and one-fourth hours, basting every fifteen minutes. Serve with current jelly sauce. Or rub the meat with fat, wrap it in a greased paper and roast in a covered roaster with a little water in the bottom of the pan. When the meat is nearly done remove the cover and the paper and finish the roasting basting once or twice with fat. Make a sauce of the drippings in it. Make a sauce of the drippings in it. Wild Turkey Wild turkey must be drawn, singed and cleaned. Just as to be done. Clean and wipe inside and out with a damp cloth. Truss the turkey into shape at once; sprinkle the turkey inside and out with salt and pepper, carefully with pepper, and pour into the washing pan a half cup of boiling water. Place in a very hot oven until thoroughly browned. Cool the oven and roast slowly 15 minutes every pound. Wild turkeys are much better without stuffing. Serve with them cranberry sauce, boiled onions with cream sauce, celery.

Rabbit Pie

Skin and clean a rabbit. Bake in pie as for chicken pie.

Wild turkey must be drawn, singed and cleaned. Just as to be done. Clean and wipe inside and out with a damp cloth. Truss the turkey into shape at once; sprinkle the turkey inside and out with salt and pepper, carefully with pepper, and pour into the washing pan a half cup of boiling water. Place in a very hot oven until thoroughly browned. Cool the oven and roast slowly 15 minutes every pound. Wild turkeys are much better without stuffing. Serve with them cranberry sauce, boiled onions with cream sauce, celery.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

(Miss Reilly will answer in this column all questions on etiquette)

Conspicuous jewelry is exceedingly vulgar for men. A man has a chance to show his taste in ties, cravats and hosiery.

LORRAINE: I don't think you need worry, but remember that a man is what a woman makes him. Do not permit him to get into bad habits during the engagement or you will never be able to cure him after you are married. Maintain your dignity and remember a woman must be not won unsought.

ELSIE: As the young man was simply an acquaintance and met you only by chance, it was perfectly proper for you to pay your own car fare.

THE SCHOLAR'S WRISTLET

Offers Convenient Storage for Penholder, Pencils and Eraser.

Instead of a wrist watch the up-to-date scholar carries a supply of pencils, penholder, eraser and other schoolroom essentials at the wrist.

Carries Scholar's Essentials.

A new wristlet is made of tough fiber which offers a protection for the sleeve and at the same time carries all the implements likely to be called for in the course of a day's work at the desk. Metal clips hold the pencils or penholder securely, while a shield protects their points and a pocket takes care of the eraser. As the student moves about from one room to another his working tools are always with him and at hand.

CHARLES VAN HISE.

In the death of Charles R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin, is a distinct loss to the University, to the state and to the nation. Coming as it does at a critical period in the educational history of the world, particularly in the history of the United States, his death is a great loss. What position he held in the esteem of his students and fellow faculty members is exemplified by the following statement of Dean E. A. Birge of the university, who says:

"It was the supreme merit of Dr. Van Hise as president of the University of Wisconsin that from the first he conceived the problems of a state university in a new way and with broad comprehension, both of the duties and possibilities of such an institution," said Dean Birge. "He saw clearly its duty of carrying knowledge beyond the campus and making it directly effective in the life of the state; and he conceived and executed this duty to an extent and on a scale never before attempted. This part of his work for the university no doubt attracted more attention and commendation than anything else."

"Yet President Van Hise had the further and higher merit of conceiving these new ideas in a just relation to the entire plan and purpose of the university. Only last week he told the British Universities Mission at a round table conference, the story of the University of Wisconsin, and set forth its character and peculiarities as a state university. He emphasized not only, or chiefly, these new ideas which he had wrought into its structure, but the historical growth of the special lines of university teaching and investigation out of the general departments of the College of Letters and Science. He told our guests of the care and pains which the university has taken to keep unified and strong the teaching in the pure sciences, old and new. He urged on them the view that much of the strength of the university has come from this historical relation and has depended on its maintenance. His words, which I quote only in a small part, showed better than anything I could say, that conception of a state university which is fundamental to his work as president. This conception he carried out in his plans for the University of Wisconsin, and in so doing he advanced it to a distinguished place among sister institutions."

"Through the university, President Van Hise has accomplished great things for the state in the fifteen years of his service as president. He leaves us in the fullness of his powers and of his strength. He leaves us at a time when the university is facing the new and difficult problems which peace inherits from war; when the university, as part of the state educational system, stands in the front line of the clear thought and firm guidance."

GERMAN IMMIGRATION PROBLEM. "It requires only a little calm consideration to perceive that, as a result of the calamity she has brought upon herself, Germany will not be able to return to a normal industrial condition for years. She has alienated the custom, as well as the friendship, of practically the rest of the world. More bitter toward her than her recognized enemies of the last four years are, perhaps, the nations which she has recently been styling her allies. Her world trade has been wiped out. The armistice conditions deprive her of the ability to retrieve it. She has no hope and no plan, therefore her competitors could enter the field. She must make restitution for what she has destroyed, restore all stolen goods in her possession, and supply indemnities for everything she has seized and applied to her own use," says the Christian Science Monitor.

"For an indefinite season Germany will be back where she was during the first half of the last century, when one of her poets, forced into exile by the prevalent poverty and depression, sang:

Farewell, thou land where hope is blighted,
Farewell, my country and my home.

There will, in all probability, be another great German exodus, another wave of Teutonic emigration such as that which followed the revolution of 1848. Then the United States held its arms wide open in welcome to the refugees and exiles, admitted them without question, and laid within their reach the opportunity which had been denied them at home.

"No doubt, German immigrants will soon be flocking to the United States in great numbers. If the doors shall again be opened to their admission. Here, plainly, arises a problem; but it is less difficult of solution than the problem likely to arise from the flocking of German immigrants into Mexico and Central and South American countries. At the worst, the German immigrant in the United States can be kept under surveillance; at the best, if he seeks a foothold in the Western Hemisphere with motives such as those which have prompted great numbers of his compatriots in the past, he will be dangerous in any part of the American continent. Aside from his conspiracies in the United States, his plots and machinations throughout the southern Americas have been disturbing factors in American, and in world affairs during the war. He was trusted in the past and proved untrustworthy. Will he be more deserving of trust in the future? Who can tell? And herein lies the question."

"It is a question that cannot be avoided, nor can a decision upon it be long postponed. Germanization has now been defeated in North and South America, as well as in other parts of the world. But will it remain defeated? Should it, with free-handed generosity, be given the privilege of reviving?"

THE HOHENZOLLERN.

It now appears to the minds of the native Europeans that our old friend Hohenzollern did not really abdicate. He only skipped out of the country while envoys of the socialists negotiated peace terms. That Hohenzollern and his royal family, now residents of Holland, are merely waiting for a good opportunity to return to the "dear Fatherland," step before the people and say he will lead them to even greater prominence than when he tried to place himself in the Sun and talked of "Me and Gott." That to accomplish this he seeks to unite all Germans in Austria, Germany proper and Sweden and Holland, into one great people, and be ready to start something as soon as the world catches his breath again. That England is really frightened as evidenced by the fact that so much prominence is given the rumor, Rolf, who has written so many communications to President Wilson recently; Prince Max, the former chancellor, and Von Hindenburg, are all claimed as prime movers in the plot to keep the civilized world stirred up. It is a nicely drawn plan and one which will not help Germany materially in gaining extra consideration when the final peace terms are being considered.

CASUALTY LISTS.

The casualty lists that are furnished by the government and published daily in the papers throughout the United States, are evidently weeks behind the final accounting. Within the past week Rock county boys' names have been listed as wounded severely or otherwise, with no exact date given, who were injured during the summer, have written their parents and friends from hospitals of their troubles and have even been reported back for active duty long before their names appear in print. It is most probable that the government is receiving these lists from General Pershing by mail, often delayed, then comes the further delay of transmitting them to the various districts in the United States, so much time is lost. Within a week two residents have received word that their sons were badly injured, through the war department, when but a day or two previously they had received letters from these same boys stating they had been in a hospital but were being returned to their companies. This causes untold anxiety and uncertainty, but it is one of the problems that a nation, transformed from a peaceful community into a war power overnight, must solve, and thank fortune the end is in sight and our boys will soon be home again with us.

President Wilson is going to Europe

to be present at the opening sessions of the peace conference because he has evolved a neat scheme for a League of Nations and he wants to see it personally put across in just the concrete form he prefers to be. In plain words he is seeking to dominate that bunch of peace delegates just as he has handled the last two democratic congresses.

Taking time by the forelock is the expression he used at the work being accomplished at the new plant of the Janesville Machine company in Spring Brook. Like Aladdin's palace, the structure is going up, and the statement it will be ready for occupancy by January 1st may not be far wrong.

This next legislature is going to be a problem for many who seek to handle the diverse interests that are represented. Nominally it is republican, but what species of the party it will be hard to guess until it convenes.

The war did not last long enough to pry some of those stay-at-home soldiers with soft bureau jobs in Washington loose from their positions.

Mobs and revolution among the submissive Germans? Gracious, what's the world coming to? Next we shall hear that the rabbits have risen and overthrown the wolves, tigers and lions.

Well, Bill, you lost the Kaiser job, so come over here and perhaps we can get you elected to some little office by your pro-German friends in Milwaukee.

After claiming that Germany had been thoroughly democratized, the Hun peace delegates submitted the armistice terms to the Kaiser for his acceptance or rejection, and he ran away.

Give the boys overseas all the turkey they want for Thanksgiving, even if the rest of us have to eat feed trip.

Having refused the chance to establish a peaceable, orderly and law-abiding democracy, the German autocrats now face the anarchy and ruin of Bolshevism.

In paying the indemnity, Germany's paper money will no doubt be accepted at a fair price for old rag stock per barrel.

Every day is Nut day for the socialists and pacifists.

Hoard's Condition Serious. Port Atkinson.—The condition of Ex-Gov. W. D. Hoard, 82, continues serious. Two nurses are in attendance. Physicians say there is no cause for alarm. Mr. Hoard's three sons and his brother, H. E. Hoard, of Montevideo, Minn., are at home. Though in slowly declining health during the last two years, due to advancing age, Mr. Hoard has kept in close touch with current events and even did considerable writing up to the first week of November.

GEORGE S. PARKER WILL GO TO FRANCE

PRESIDENT OF PARKER PEN COMPANY ADMITTED THIS MORNING THAT HE WILL GO OVER SEAS
FOR AMERICAN RED CROSS.

LEAVES ABOUT JAN. 1

Expects to Receive Orders for Sailing About First of New Year. Will Have Rank of Captain.

George S. Parker, president of the Parker Pen company, reluctantly admitted this morning that he had made application for work in France with the American Red Cross and that he expected to receive orders to sail about the last of December or early in January.

Mr. Parker was very reticent regarding the subject and stated that he thought that he was doing nothing more than his duty. Mr. Parker is to receive no remuneration and is required to pay all of his own expenses besides being obliged to stay overseas six months.

GEO. S. PARKER.

He will undoubtedly have charge as an executive officer of a certain sector and will be the directing head of the American Red Cross for that particular sector. Mr. Parker has had many years executive training and his services will be of great value to the Red Cross.

Mr. Parker will be an executive officer of the American Red Cross and will have the rank of captain. This he finally admitted after being questioned this morning.

E. C. Patterson of the Warner-Patterson firm, who has been in France for several months was the man who requested that Mr. Parker offer his services to the Red Cross. Mr. Patterson had a most difficult position in France and was one of the United States to get men whom he knew were good executives. He urgently requested that Mr. Parker go to France and after a trip to the Red Cross headquarters in Chicago last week, Mr. Parker consented to go.

Since the outbreak of the war Mr. Parker has been one of the most ardent war workers in Wisconsin. He is chairman of the War Chest Fund and it was partially due to his untiring efforts that the "Your Share is Fair" plan was such a tremendous success. He has taken an active interest in all war benevolence since the outbreak of the war and has done splendid work in all four of the Liberty Loan campaigns. Mr. Parker was recently elected president of the Janesville Rotary club.

As yet Mr. Parker has received no word as to the exact date he will leave Janesville but expects to receive his orders before many weeks. Owing to the many formalities such as obtaining passports and getting the consent of military authorities to leave the country it requires several weeks before a Red Cross official can sail.

"HI Y" CLUB HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the "Hi Y" club this year was held last night at the "Y" building. Plans were made for the organization of the society, and the activities of the year. The boys were given a talk by Mr. Artman, a Y. M. C. A. worker of note, who outlined to the boys his idea of what the "Hi Y" club should be and what is its purpose.

The club meets every week, and every other week supper is served. The initiation of new members will be held in the near future.

The "Triangle" club, a number of the younger high school boys, also met last night, and held a brief business session after which several new members were initiated.

The "Hi Y" is a number of the older high school boys, while the Triangle club contains the younger classmen.

FOUND GUILTY ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

Prod Lipke of Clinton was found guilty in the municipal court yesterday afternoon of drunkenness. Lipke was brought into court a few days ago and his hearing adjourned on his plea of not guilty.

Yesterday he was again brought in to court and although he produced several witnesses he was found guilty and given a fine of $10 and costs or twenty days.

A CORRECTION
In the Golden Breeze advertisement last evening, an error was made, making costs read twice in the ad at $24.75, while it should have read, costs at $24.75 and also suits at $24.75, and so this correction is gladly made.

Lodge Notice P. O. E.: The Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold their regular meeting tomorrow evening, Thursday, Nov. 21st at which time nomination of officers for the year 1919 will take place. Everybody come and nominate your choice.

C. M. Haudy, Sec.

Notice: Circle No. 1 of the M. E. church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. George Havens, Rural Route, No. 8.

War Slides Friday: Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. a number of War slides will be presented. The slides are all recent ones and should be interesting. They will be viewed by members of the Association only.

HEARD FROM OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Sgt. William G. Evenson.
The following letter from Sgt. William G. Evenson, of the Evacuation Hospital No. 20 of the American Expeditionary forces in France, to his mother, Mrs. W. G. Evenson, written last September, is most interesting. It is as follows:

September 1918.
Although we have been in France nearly two weeks I have not written for the very simple reason that there is not much to write of except the usual commonplaces about the life in good health, having plenty to eat, etc. We had an uneventful trip across—made it in seven days, and was on the same boat as Secretary Baker. We are now at what is called a rest camp, where troops remain for from three to ten days or more to rest up, clean up, and get equipment before moving on to the front. The camp is extremely old, being surrounded by an ancient stone wall, the barracks we occupy are decidedly primitive—were built by Louis XVI. in 1764 and that I am sure we could have been seen by a carpenter, mason or repairman since. Most of the men sleep on the floor, we eat outdoors on the ground, are engaged in work for three minutes duration. I was fortunate in "stealing" a bed spring, and in bribing a guard into letting me get an extra bath.

Just as I am getting satisfied with a bath, at any time since I have been in the army, I feel that we are actually getting there now and will have a shower in the pie at no great distant time.

I have been out of camp a couple of times on walks through the surrounding country. Everything is extremely quiet here. There are no horses and chickens occupied one room, and the people ate and slept immediately across the hall. The sanitation is not there—it stinks around the camp. I have seen a pool where a number of peasant women were doing their laundry. An artificial pool had been enlarged from a little stream of water and rough rocks were used for forming ledges. The cold water ran into the pool, and the clothes were washed either by scrubbing against the rocks, or laying them on the rocks and scrubbing with a heavy brush much like the street cleaners use back home. I saw as many as ten women working at once at one of these places, having their clothes there from their homes.

I made one trip to the nearby city on a detail and it was like going into one of the oldest cities of the world. The little shops all had their shutters which are put over the windows at night. Some of the shops were like stalls, entirely open in front with the stock arranged in cases around the walls.

The street cars reminded me of those little old horse cars that used to be used as waiting rooms at the cemetery in Janesville—only the cars in France are even cruder. They won't hold over a dozen people and won't budge an inch until they are loaded. They have women conductors and motor men. If the conductor sees a friend she wants to talk to she will stop the car and the passengers can wait until she has finished her conversation.

The little farms are interesting. Each field is divided from the others by stone fences or hedges from four to six feet high and is entirely overgrown with shrubs. As the enclosures are not more than two to ten acres when you get in one the fences are so high you can't see beyond. It is only when you get on a hill that you can get any glimpse of the surrounding country. From a high point it looks like an immense checker board with all these walls dividing the little areas. The roadways are nearly all walled on both sides so one can see only a few feet ahead of him to the next turn in the road. The houses are not visible except through the gates or in case they are built against the road in which case there is no hedge or wall.

They tell us we will not really appreciate what the French people have been through until we get close to the front. An officer told me this morning that every two weeks an inspector comes around to all the shop keepers, goes over their records—they must keep an account of every sale—and makes them give half the profits toward the war fund.

A wounded soldier back from the front told an interesting little story the other day. The French and Germans had been having opposite banks of a certain river, and had become so fraternal that one side would withdraw and let the other bathe in the river. They had been doing this for some time until the Americans came and were brigaded with the French. The Yanks didn't say anything at what they saw but planted a number of machine guns overlooking the river and waited until plenty of Germans were in the river before they used the guns. The Huns are still taking that bath.

We have not received any American mail yet and don't expect to until we reach our post which may not be for several weeks. I expect when it does come there will be lots of it. Will be glad to hear from you often and to have you put in any newspaper clippings you think would interest me. We get the Paris edition of the New York Herald and Chicago Tribune here but they are only two-page editions and there is not much in them, but war news. You know I am interested in Wisconsin politics. I wish you would note the date of my letters and let me know just how long it takes you to get them—also if any are ever cut up by the censor. Signing my full name as I do is a censorship requirement.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

For just one year we have been watching Bert Lytell rise to face on the silver screen. His first picture of note was "The Lone Wolf." The picture itself was one of the best and Lytell's work marked him as a star. Since that time he has eluded steadily, but he has never had such a fitting vehicle.

And now just when this promising young leading man is being started he decides that motion pictures are not moving fast enough to suit him. He has decided to leave them and enter the United States army. Lytell received his appointment to Camp McCurtain, near Waco, Texas. He will undergo a course of training which will round him into an officer. His admirers from the fair sex need not worry, for he is a perfect gentleman. He is a perfectly good wife. She is Evelyn Vaughn.

Although married, Lytell sought a commission some time ago, but he received the opportunity to enter training only recently. He will start his training in the near future. Metro and many film fans will miss Lytell.

ANOTHER DENIAL

And now Eddie Rickenbacker cables from France that he didn't know he was engaged to a movie actress. Well, there are a lot of things an aviator doesn't know. And if a certain one knew what a certain actress looked like we bet he'd never cable details of his engagement to the general public.

ANOTHER FORSAKES THE "LEGION"

Annie Russell, hesitant for a long time about appearing before the camera, has finally consented to play the role of Edith Cavell in Metro's "Wilson or the Kaiser." She is English by birth and is the wife of Oswald Yorke, also English. She says

Bert Lytell.

she considers this role a patriotic privilege.

HAI COOLEY TO WED

Hai Cooley, for some time leading man for Thomas H. Ince in Frida Bennett features, has at last decided to wed. His bride is to be a southern girl of Atlanta, Ga., where the wedding is soon to take place. The girl is Miss Elizabeth Bates, daughter of a business man of that city.

Togo Bezdick, who was manager of the Pirates of Pittsburgh the past season, after which he took charge of athletics at Penn State college, where he developed a new system of mass athletics, in which every one of the fifteen hundred students was required to take some part, was successful in that work that the war department has called on him to act as a supervisor of similar methods of athletic development for the youngsters of the country.

Bezdick was famous as a football coach before he became a baseball team manager, and the government's call to him is a striking testimonial of his success as a handler of men.

SOLDIERS VOTE HAS ALL BEEN RECEIVED

Apparently the soldiers from Rock county who voted for county officers at the recent election at their various camps, were republicans to the core, for the final count shows but few democratic ballots were cast. In the first assembly district Thos. E. Nolan, republican received 31 votes to Jeffry, the prohibitionist candidate 1 for the assembly. In the second district Michael, republican received 17 votes to one scattering. In the list of county officers Howard Lea the county clerk received the most votes having sixty-five credited to him. and Church, county treasurer was credited with 55. Booley for sheriff had 51, with one scattering. Jesse Earle 54, Stanley Dunwidia for district attorney 56, scattering one, Smiley 49, Batterman 44.

In a given signal the team, except the snapper, jumps to certain given directions—according to the play called for. They do not all jump alike, each in a different direction. As a matter of fact the system in its entirety calls for the men to jump in a great variety of different ways. There is only one thing that they always do in common and that is they all jump SIMULTANEOUSLY. When properly drilled and practiced this jump in unison results in their landing back on earth in perfect unison.

THEIR NEW POSITIONS. At the completion of this jump they come to a complete stop, as is required by the rules, and seven of them are always found now to be on the line of scrimmage, as again called for by the rules. These seven are, however, not necessarily the SAME seven in all cases.

In their new positions after the jump, the eleven men pause for the barest fraction of a minute. Almost instantly after the shift and the fractional stop of the players on the scrimmage line, the ball goes into play. Then the whole team is off with the ball, the idea being to transfer a lot of man power to the given point of attack before the defense can assemble an equivalent strength in man power to oppose the assault.

"The Helman shift involves not only the backs, but the linemen as well. It is employed on every close formation play, and calls for a great variety of plying ways and distances of jumping on the part of the differing men, whereas in most shifts all the men shift uniform distances and in the same direction."

"Early in the season it is difficult to teach new men the thing so they will not either jump too soon or too late and thus offend some rule or other but by November it is always found working very smoothly."

"The best evidence in the world that the 'jump shift' is not illegal is the fact that we have employed it in each of our games from 1910, in which some of the most famous officials in America have been involved and not one has found fault with it."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Janesville Gazette:
Dear Sir: In the interest of truth, I solicit space in the "Voice of the People" column of the Gazette, to present some facts of history suggested by "Our Saturday Night" editorial of Nov. 16, where you refer to the Pope as the shepherd of the sheep and was found by the shepherds living in a manger.

Jesus, the Saviour, which is Christ the Lord, was born in the fullness of the time when the iron empire of pagan Rome was celebrating a world "Peace" gained by military power. The victory was indicated by the closed door of the war temple of Janus at imperial Rome.

This peace of Rome is the heathen way. It is written, "Learn not the way of the heathen." Before Jesus was crucified He said unto His disciples, "Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth (by force) give I unto you."

The falling away from the Peace that Jesus gave to His first disciples culminated in the greatest world war that gripped mankind from July, nineteen hundred and fourteen to November 11th, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

The only way for the present evil world that lieth in wickedness is to repent and yield a complete surrender to the Prince of Peace.

Then strong nations shall heat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the Lord of Hosts hath spoken it. Truly yours
O. R. FREEBORN.

THE FRIENDLY CALL

When a friend drops in for an evening call
Is the time I fancy the best of all.
When the lights are lit and the shades are down
And hushed is the noise of the busy town
And the rage has cooled and the hate died out
And the spirits of peace hover all about
Then laughter rings in the old time way
As friendship closes and seals the day.

There's something rich in the gentle smile
Of the friend that sits by our hearth awhile.
Something deeper than eyes may find
In the light of day where the great wheels grind
And it seems to me more of his soul comes out
Than is ever seen where men walk about
For the striving gaining are at an end
And he's less a toiler and more a friend.

The talk is gentler than ears have heard
In the busy town where men's souls are stirred Goals are distant and gold seems base
And we have slipped from the dusty race
And settled down in a calm serene
Where hearts are gentle and thoughts are clean.
And there's something better than fame can bring
In the tales we tell and the songs we sing.

The world's shut out with its noise and greed
For we're all of the peace and the joy we need.
For a little while we are free to say
The thoughts that lie in our minds all day
For a little while we can romp and shout
And let our spirits come dancing out.
So I thank the Lord for each day that
With the home enriched by the love of friends.

CHARLES R. VAN HISE'S DEATH DISTINCT LOSS TO THE UNIVERSITY

Madison, November 20.—President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin, died suddenly at the Mount Sinai hospital in Milwaukee about 8:30 Tuesday morning. His death was due to pneumonia, meningitis following a nasal operation.

Dr. Van Hise had been suffering for some time from a serious condition of his nose which obstructed breathing. The condition had been serious since his return from his recent trip to Europe.

On Friday morning he went to Milwaukee for an operation which was not expected to be a serious character. On Sunday, however, a high temperature developed, and shortly afterward he lost consciousness. His condition and his subsequent death were due to a secondary pneumonia infection which attacked the membrane of the central nervous system.

His death was unexpected. Dr. Van Hise's sudden death comes as a surprise to the entire university and even to his closest friends for few were informed of his operation. His death was a distinct loss to the university. His family and close associates who knew of the operation did not announce the operation because no one expected the operation to be especially serious, much less fatal.

No plans for the funeral have been made as yet and the day has not been announced. The university will be closed during the funeral which will be kept open until the day of the funeral.

He is survived by Mrs. Van Hise and two daughters, Miss Janet and Miss Alice.

Former Supporter of the War.

Dr. Van Hise had been president of the University of Wisconsin since 1902 and was one of the best known men in the state. He had been a supporter of the war and in the great movements for the welfare of the country, he was known as a leader. His many books, treatises and public addresses, his great interest in the geological problems of the country, in conversation, in regulation, and his public addresses on these subjects were well known throughout the country. In the solving of many of the nation's problems, such as the land difficulties in the Panama Canal in 1916, he was called into consultation or on special missions by the government.

More recently his interest in the war and its attendant problems has been in his going on and off to Washington and elsewhere and his delivering many public addresses throughout the country. Among his associates in the university he was known as a leader in the department of German aggression long before it was realized by the public of this section of the country, and was a strong supporter of the German cause. When America entered the war, he was full of enthusiasm over what he considered the great and almost holy cause which the nation had undertaken.

Mobilizes His Faculty.

Under his guidance the university began its active participation in assisting the nation in its preparation for possible war, months before war was declared. On April 2, the day on which President Wilson read his war message to congress, Dr. Van Hise called his faculty together to discuss the mobilization of the university's resources to aid the nation. Step by step, he aided and guided this mobilization until almost every department and every person on the staff was actively participating. Men who found definite work to do in the army, navy, or other war work, he gladly released from their university work. In the days when student sentiment was crystallizing, he guided it through convocations and various organizations and movements of the men of his faculty, until it blazed out into a fervid and active support of the war effort. He enlisted the aid of hundreds of students and an active and enthusiastic interest in the war.

During the summer of 1917 he devoted his entire time to work for food administration and other emergency war bodies. He was called to Washington frequently for consultations with almost every one of these bodies and he was a member of the League of Nations in various parts of the country. In the fall of 1917 he wrote a series of lectures on food conservation which were used in several hundred colleges and universities. He made another lecture trip throughout the west in the interests of the war. During August and September he visited England and France as a member of the party of editors who were guests of the British government.

Urges League of Free Nations.

He returned to America full of enthusiasm for the League of Nations, a peace in the future and was preparing to devote all of his leisure time to furthering the idea. It was at this time that the League of Free Nations held its national convention in Madison this month to support the League of Nations idea. At the convention President Van Hise in the evening address presented a comprehensive plan for the League of Nations which has been published and quoted throughout the country. This great work is interrupted by his sudden death.

His latest book, "Conservation and Regulation in the United States During the War," was almost completed at the time of his death.

President Van Hise was the first alumnus of the University of Wisconsin to become its president, as well as the first Wisconsin-born president of the state's great people's university. He has been connected with the faculty of the university continuously since his graduation as a member of its "famous class of 1879."

He was the first president of the University of Wisconsin in 1904, and the broad conception of the function of a state university, as he enunciated in his inaugural address and as he has carried it out during the ensuing fourteen years of his administration, has been recognized throughout the world as a significant contribution to the ideal of higher education.

"I shall never be content until the beneficial influence of the University of Wisconsin reaches every family of the state," he declared in his inaugural address in setting forth the ideas that he hoped to carry into effect.

"This is my ideal of a state university. When the University of Wisconsin attains this ideal, it will be the first perfect state university."

The University of Wisconsin desires to prevent that greatest of all economic losses to the state, the loss of talent, he continued on that occasion. "To prevent the loss of talent the University must not only provide for those who came to Madison for instruction, but must go out to the people of the state with the knowledge which they desire."

Called "Leading State University."

Since President Van Hise began to realize this ideal at the university, one state university after another has taken up the banner of extending its sphere of usefulness until now it is recognized throughout the United States that the real campus of a state university is, as he said, the entire state.

In recognition of President Van Hise's contribution to the development of higher education in this country, Harvard university conferred on him the degree of doctor of honor in 1917 and on that occasion President Eliot of Harvard declared that under President Van Hise, the University of Wisconsin had become a leading state university within five years of the time that he became president. He should have been able to realize his ideal for his alma mater so fully as to win this tribute from the leading American university president.

Head of one of the oldest and most influential universities of this country, showed how successful he was as an administrator.

Research and investigation, President Van Hise, as a scientist, always placed foremost among the aims of a university, and during his administration he gave the greatest possible impetus to the development of the faculty to increase the intellectual stores of the state and the nation through creative scholarship and research, both in pure and applied branches of knowledge.

Always a Wisconsin Man.

President Van Hise was a Wisconsin man in birth, education, life work, and interest. His entire energies were devoted to the development of his native state and its people's university.

He was born at Fulton, Wis., on May 29, 1857, the son of William and Mary Van Hise. He entered the University of Wisconsin in 1875 and graduated with the degree of bachelor of mechanical engineering in 1879. Subsequently he received the bachelor of science degree in 1880, and the degree of doctor of philosophy in 1892. The degree of doctor of law was conferred upon him by the University of Chicago in 1903, by Yale university in 1904, by Harvard University in 1905, by Williams college in 1908, and by Dartmouth college in 1909.

President in 1903.

Ever since his graduation from the university, he has been a member of its faculty. He was instructor in metallurgy from 1879 to 1882, assistant professor from 1882 to 1886, and professor from 1886 to 1888. He was professor of mineralogy from 1888 to 1890, professor of geology and applied geology from 1890 to 1892, and professor of geology from 1892 to 1903. Since 1903 he has been president of the university.

Dr. Van Hise was non-resident professor of structural geology of the University of Chicago from 1892 to 1903, member of the geological branch of the United States Geological Survey since 1893, geologist in charge of the division of Pre-Cambrian and Metamorphic geology, and consulting geologist from 1903 to 1908, and geologist for the Wisconsin Geologist and Natural History survey from 1897 to 1903.

He was a member of the National Conservation committee in 1909, was chairman of the Wisconsin State Conservation committee from 1908 to 1916, chairman of the Board of Arbitration in the controversy between the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Locomotive Engineers in 1912, and has been the trustee of the Carnegie Foundation for Advancement of Teaching since 1909.

He was a member of the National Academy of Science, Washington Academy of Science, Scientific Society of Christiania, Royal Swedish Academy of Science, Geological Society of America, of which he was president in 1907, the Geological Society of London, American Philosophical society, Wisconsin Academy of Science, Arts and Letters (of which he was president in 1898-9), Boyton Society of Natural History, American Association for Advancement of Science (of which he was vice president of Section E in 1901, and president in 1916), Russian Society of Mineralogy, and Geological Society of Stockholm.

Dr. Van Hise was a member of Cosmos club of Washington and of the University club of Madison and of Milwaukee.

He was author of the following: "Archaeon and Algonkian," "Principles of North American Pre-Cambrian Geology," "Some Principles Controlling the Deposition of Onondaga," "Treatise of Metamorphism," "The Conservation of Natural Resources," "Concentration and Control—A Solution of the Trust Problem in the United States."

He was joint author of "Pencook Iron Bearing Series of Michigan," "The Menominee Iron Bearing District of Michigan," and "Geology of the Lake Superior Region." He was a contributor to many scientific, educational, and economic papers.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, Nov. 20.—The whitewater honor roll is showing another good star, for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawes have received the sad news of the death of their son Harold who was wounded in action, August 31.

Harold was born April 1, 1896, at Waverly, N. Y. He came to Whitewater when about nine years old and received his education in the schools of this city, being a senior at the Normal at the time he joined Co. C, and entered the service of his country, April 1, 1917. He was sent to Camp Douglas and then to Camp Texas, and served as a member of Co. K, March 21. His letters have been full of cheer and hope was entertained for his recovery. The sympathy of the entire city is with the bereaved family.

The Emerson club was entertained at their meeting, Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. J. N. Humphrey. Mrs. Augusta Shephard gave a pleasing reading from Bishop Inayat, also several poems.

The Parent-Teacher Association met at the high school yesterday afternoon. After the usual business, Mrs. Elvyn Main took charge of the program. Miss Marion Pierce sang a solo, "Dear Old Pal of Mine," that was warmly received. A rare treat was given the association by Mrs. Alice Dixon, who spoke on the subject, "The Effect of War on Men's Religion." Mrs. Dixon has made a very thorough study of the leading magazines and late books on this subject and finds it the general opinion that although criticism of the church has increased, respect for religion has also increased. No atheist can be found in the trenches and the boys are demanding a shirt-sleeve religion, practical, teaching sacrifice and brotherly

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a headache—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

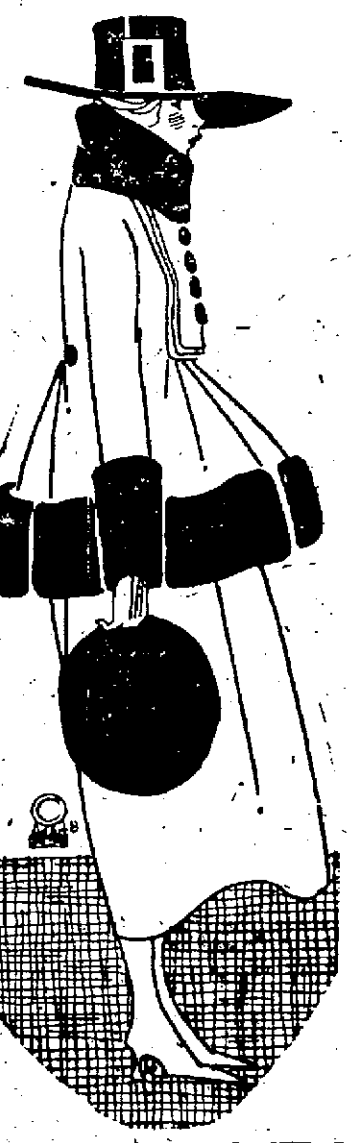

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

HOW TO COOK POTATOES.

Mashed Potatoes.—Mash boiled potatoes, add drippings and milk and beat well. Keep hot but not uncovered until served.
Creamed Potatoes.—Cut, boiled, or baked potatoes in half-inch cubes; add white sauce and reheat. To each cup of potatoes add one-half to one cup white sauce.
Baked Potatoes.—Choose medium-sized, smooth potatoes, wash, bake for an hour in a hot oven. As soon as they are taken up, break the skin to let out the moisture. If this is left in they will soon become soggy.
Scalloped Potatoes.—Fill baking dish with alternate layers of sliced potatoes and onions, add salt and pepper to taste, add milk or milk and water to cover. Put layer of bread crumbs over top and bake one and one-half to two hours or until potatoes and onions are cooked. Left-over potatoes may be used, in which case much less time will be required for cooking. One-half hour will usually be sufficient to cook the onions, if sliced thin.

Oak Hill Potatoes.—Four cold, boiled potatoes, six hard-boiled eggs, salt, pepper, two cups thin white sauce, make as follows: Two cups milk, four tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt, few grains pepper. Cut potatoes and eggs in one-half inch slices. Put layers of potatoes in buttered baking dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper, cover with layer of eggs; repeat and pour over two cups thin white sauce. Cover with buttered cracker crumbs and bake until the crumbs are brown.

TRIED RECIPES.

Victory Pepper Pot.—To serve three people. Six medium-sized sweet green peppers, leftover chicken or pork (cooked); put through grinder to make one cupful; half cup cold boiled rice; salt and pepper. Cut off tops of peppers, take out seeds and clean nicely. Put them in saucepan of cold salted water, let come to a boil and cook couple of minutes longer, but do not let them become soft. Take up the peppers, drain and cool.

Mix the ground meat and rice and season. Fill the peppers, replace the tops that were cut off and fasten with toothpicks. Put one quart can of tomatoes through a colander, put in a saucepan, place peppers in it. Let come to a boil and cook five minutes longer. Take up peppers; add pinch of soda and one tablespoon sugar to tomato broth. Lastly add one cupful sour cream. (Cut the sweet cream, but keep it better.)

Stuff two stuffed peppers as a portion in a soup dish and cover with tomato broth. This, with salted butter and a simple salad or dessert, makes a satisfying and nutritious meal.

Corn Bread.—Two cups cornmeal, one and one-half cups flour, two eggs, two cups sweet milk or water, one teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder; beat the eggs, then add the cornmeal, then put the salt in and put the baking powder in a dish with flour; mix well, then add the milk and stir all together; when water is used a little shortening may be used. Turn in a deep pan or skillet and bake in a loaf. The recipe is a good dish about two inches high in a common pan.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Eminent and esteemed writers, cartoonists, and woman-haters have long made fun of woman and her pet philanthropies or uplift work. The woman who has been interested in "social work" has been satirized in books in newspapers and on the stage, but it has not dampened her ardor any. And now with reclamation work to be done abroad there is a new and fertile field opened for the woman who "wants to do some good in the world."

Of course many women will go to extremes in doing reclamation work just as they did in doing "their bit" for the men in the service, but it is to be hoped that none will go as far as some Chicago woman did. These women inspired by the horribleness of the war and by its tremendous scope, decided that they must do something to help "the boys." Their plan was novel if nothing else. They spent much time and energy in getting people to save old stubs of pencils, which they then collected with no little effort and sent to the soldiers to use in writing their weekly letters home.

Women who have clear vision are wasting their time in no such manner. Instead they are doing something for the future of their country. Lady Loughborough is an Australian woman engaged in such work. She is organizing a society to care for and educate the Belgian and French orphans. The organization plans to teach the orphans some trade or profession which will fit them to be self-supporting and good citizens. Lady Loughborough is called the "Mother of the Orphans."

She is the wife of Lord Loughborough, who was all through the Gallipoli operations as a lieutenant in the R. N. V. R. He was wounded and later returned to the King's Royal Rifles.

Mrs. Alec Tweedie, noted English author, has given practical advice to U. S. women on how to conserve trifles. Here are a few of her suggestions which will doubtless seem very radical:

"We should buy nothing not absolutely essential, and one and all should vow never to buy any article of clothing for a whole year."

"Matches may be saved by using homemade paper spills, or a night-light. And, cheaper still, small boxes of tin can be filled with cotton wool, on which kerosene is poured. In the top of this tight fitting box make a hole just big enough for a piece of ordinary string wick to come through. This little lighter will cost about two cents a week and only requires to be filled every few days."

"No presents of any kind should be given, as they are nearly always things one can do without."

"Meat should all be taken off the bones. Bones and fat are merely wasted when served on plates. If taken off before cooking the bones go inside the soup, and the fat is kept for cooking."

HOAG'S CORNERS

Hoag's Corners, Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoag and daughter Laura spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. August Huse of Newville.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyspe of Milton visited at August Lipkes, one day last week.

Robert More is visiting his son Will at St. Paul.

The L. J. S. meets Thursday with Mrs. Ida Zimmerman.

Miss Mabel Zimmerman was a Beloit visitor Friday.

There will be church services at the church Sunday evening, Nov. 24. Rev. Raby of Delavan will conduct the services. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Richard entertained a company from Janesville last Thursday.

Harry Wheeler and men erected a new milk house on the Allie Munroe farm occupied by M. Unterliener.

HARMONY

Harmony, Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert T. Stewart announce the arrival of a baby boy which came to brighten their home Nov. 16. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

L. T. Rowe of Chicago was a Sunday evening caller at Andrew Hoag's.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fanning and family spent Sunday at the home of Michael Fanning at Johnstown.

An Important Message Regarding the Sugar Shortage

THERE'S an old saying "It's an ill wind that blows no good!"

Everyone has been inconvenienced more or less by the sugar shortage. Many people still rely entirely on sugar for sweetening and, of course, are inconvenienced.

But thousands of housewives have not only found "a way out" during the present shortage, but have learned a thing or two that will stick forever—sugar or no sugar.

Here's a fact: Sugar only sweetens—it gives absolutely no flavor.

Brer Rabbit real New Orleans Molasses not only sweetens like sugar, but it gives a rich, delicious flavor to all cooking and baking.

Yet Brer Rabbit is not a "substitute" for sugar. It is practically sugar itself. Like sugar it is made from sugar cane and contains a large amount of real sugar.

Is it not quite natural that resourceful housewives have turned to Brer Rabbit Molasses during the sugar shortage?

For the Children

Youngsters naturally crave molasses. Years ago sliced bread and molasses were part of the daily diet of children.

Gold Label Brer Rabbit Molasses gives to the child the elements the young growing body needs. Brer Rabbit is absolutely pure, wholesome, palatable and strengthening. Doctors will tell you what molasses and bread means to children.

Besides, it saves sugar, cuts the butter bill.

There are Two Kinds of Brer Rabbit Molasses

Both are Absolutely Pure New Orleans Molasses

GOLD LABEL Brer Rabbit is mild in flavor, light in color and is delicious for table use—as a spread for pancakes, waffles, biscuits, etc. It is especially fine for cooking, baking and candy making.

GREEN LABEL Brer Rabbit Molasses is darker in color, slightly stronger in flavor and is splendid for cooking, baking and candy making. It costs less than the Gold Label.

STOCKHOLDERS OF TEAM
LOST MONEY LAST YEAR

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—Stockholders of the St. Louis club of the National league lost between $25,000 and $30,000 last season, according to James C. Jones, president and chief stockholder of the club. President Jones made this statement in denying rumors that the club would be transferred to Kansas City. He also asserted that he would not consider an offer at this time to purchase his interests in the Cardinals.
He said he did not believe there would be professional baseball next season, although several other National league club owners are making plans for resumption of the game.
"I shall very likely attend the National league meeting in New York next month," he continued. "Whatever seems to be the majority opinion will receive my support."
The idea of community ownership of the Cardinals has not been abandoned. However, it appears that several of the largest stockholders will have to carry the club along, for one, in preparing to do this.
Concerning the National league presidency, Jones said he had not pledged to vote for any candidate.
"My ballot will go to the man best qualified to direct the affairs of the league," he added.

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER

What has become of the men who starred in the palmy days of boxing? I tamped some interesting facts concerning their whereabouts recently.
Jack Grace, old-time athlete, residing in Cincinnati, O., gave the latest dope on many of the boys.
George Gardner is now in Chicago selling cigars. Oscar Gardner is back in Minneapolis holding a political job.
Billy Murphy is in Auckland, New Zealand, working at the tailor's trade.
Australian Jimmy Ryan is in the saloon business in Baltimore. Jimmy Gardner also conducts a saloon in Lowell. Eddie Connelly lives in Gotham.
"Mysterious" Billy Smith and Terence Tracey are in Portland, Ore. Frank Erne is running a high-class boxing school in New York. Young Corbett is working on the Stock Exchange. Muddy Matthews is working in a New York theater. Andy Walsh is running a saloon in Brooklyn. Dick Moore has a political job in Yonkers. Peter Maher is a truck driver in New York. Kid Broad is working in the movies. Jack Dempsey is a clerk in the court of records, New York. Kid McParland holds a political job in the same city. Young Grillo is in New York making a living teaching boxing.
Other fighters who can be seen on the streets of New York almost daily are Joe Bernstein, Dave Sullivan, Willie Fitzgerald and dozens of others. Steve O'Donnell, a very clever and popular fighter, is boxing instructor at Harvard. Mike Twinn Sullivan is working for his father in Boston, while his brother Jack is a boxing instructor in the army. "Honey" Melody is working in the navy yard at Charlestown. Joe Walcott is down and out in Boston. Dan Creedon is back in Australia. He is owner of a saloon in Broken Hill. Johnny Seest is working in a cafe at Superior, Wis.
Stanton Abbott is alive and well in Providence, R. I. Shadow Maber is in St. Paul. Jimmy Murray is living in Panama and doing well; Eddie Hanlon, George Greeb, the original Young Corbett, Al Neil, Alec Greig, gains, Tony Irwin, Young Mitchell, Dutch Thurston and a host of other old-timers are living in San Francisco.

"Recently I ran into Herbert Slade, the Maori, in Salt Lake City," said Grace. "He was sent to America by the late Jim Maco to fight John L. Sullivan. He is farming and getting along nicely."
Eddie Smith, better known as Denver Ed, and his brother Paddy are in Everett, Wash.

Charley Hollocher, bright star of the Chicago Cubs last season, was in the September draft. Then came the influenza epidemic and the call for that month and also for the next was suspended. But about the first of November Hollocher, with a lot of others of the "class of 1913" got his orders and he showed up, all dressed for the part, and on Nov. 11 prepared to do his bit, for Uncle Sam—and that day came news of peace and cancellation of the draft call.
So Hollocher does not go to war, but stands ready for the baseball campaign next spring. "Seems harder to break into the army than it did to break into the big league," he says as he stands around all dressed and rowdy to go. The shortstopper star is a willing "victim" of peace, however, though he has one regret. He had organized a ball team of St. Louis draftees in the same call with him that he says could have beaten anything in the army, with himself as playing manager. He's really a bit peeved that the team will never have its chance now.

John W. Heisman, coach of Georgia Tech's unbeaten eleven, insists that the famous "Heisman jump knife" is not illegal. It is that formation originated by Heisman in 1910, which it is declared he done so much in making the tech eleven unbeatable.
"Numerous descriptions of the 'jump shift' have appeared in the papers but each has been inaccurate. It is not actually misleading," declares Heisman. "To clear away all doubts as to the legality of the play and explain it fully, I shall go into details about it."

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WILL PLAY SATURDAY

After trouncing Jefferson, Saturday, the high school football team is practicing nightly in preparation for next Saturday's game with Stoughton. Several changes may be made in the line in order to give some of the substitutes a chance to show their worth. Aller, who was injured Saturday, will be out of the game, but will be replaced by Powers, who substituted for him Saturday.
The remainder of this season's games will be played out of the city including the big game of the season with Beloit. Beloit has asked the locals to send two teams down, so an effort is being made to raise and prepare two full teams for the game.

Should Say Not.

"It's all right to pay as you go," observed the almost philosopher, "but if you have to pay 25 cents street car fare to get there and back, the chances are you won't go."
